

new book release

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Joshua A. McClure

Joshua McClure lives with his wife Ida in Bradford, RI on the outskirts of Westerly. He has three daughters, Allison, Leslie and Dorothy, a son Wesley, and eight grandchildren. He is widely known in the Rhode Island community, and he is actively involved in many community and civic activities. He is co-founder of the North End Crime Watch and Community Development, a community based organization which is developing housing for lower income people.

NEW RELEASE:

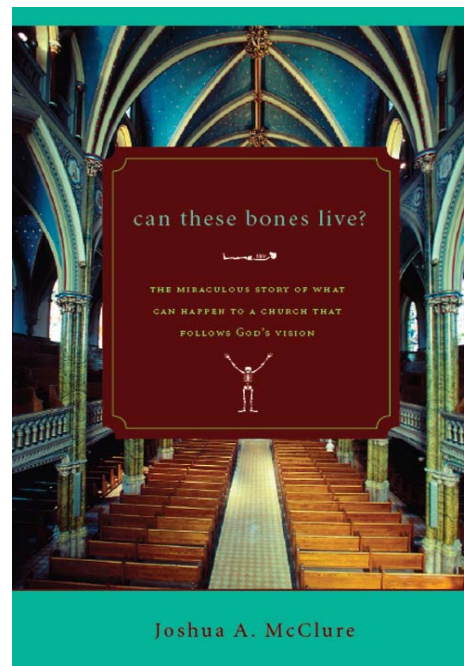

Can These Bones Live?

By Joshua A. McClure

Features & Benefits:

A true story of what can happen when we faithfully follow a vision of God's heart for his people: restored hope, resurrection and ultimate transformation of a people, church, and community.

Are you satisfied with your present faith experience, or do you long for a deeper more intimate relationship with the Lord?—Do miracles still exist or have they ceased since the early church?—Does God still call the Abrahams of this world to leave all and faithfully follow him to places unknown?—Can you give your children the inner tools needed to grow and thrive as confident, productive adults?—Does your church have a vision of God's heart for restoration of the lost, hungry, thirsty, sick, and disenfranchised of your community? These and many other questions are addressed on the pages of this book.

Hardback: 5 7/8 x 8 7/8
250 Pages
Glossy Finish
ISBN #: 1-5988647-2-6

Product Category: Church Admin. –
General Biography

For more information or to place an order:

Write to: Share The Vision Ministries, 31 Pleasant Street, Westerly, RI 02891. Call (401) 596-1923, or visit the author's website www.joshuaamclure.com. This book can be ordered for $14.95 by credit card from Tate Publishing (www.tatepublishing.com) or by visiting the author's website.